1. The question of interim relief was considered by this Court on 8.12.2004. The interim relief was granted for a limited period upto 31.1.2005 in terms of prayer clause-(c). Now the same relief is being asked for by this application. In fact, when the relief was granted for limited period, the applicants were heard and thereafter final order was passed. We further find that granting relief in terms of prayer clause-(c) will be final relief and therefore, we are not inclined to grant interim relief as prayed for. Civil Application disposed off accordingly.
